

Equity and Access in the Built Environment: A Black Alumni Showcase

April 21, 2022 | 6 - 7 pm | Zoom

The School of Architecture, Planning and Preservation and MAPP+D Alumni Network is celebrating the work of our alumni in a time where the doors to equity and access are more open than ever before. Join us as we showcase African American alums from each of our four programs in a panel discussion highlighting key successes and challenges to advancing racial equity in the built environment.

PANELISTS

Mansur Abdul-Malik,
MRED '12

Vice President of Development,
NHP Foundation
Real Estate Development

Dr. Rodney Harrell,
Ph.D. '08

Vice President, AARP
*Urban Studies &
Community Planning*

Jamesha Gibson,
MHP '17, MCP '17

Independent researcher
Historic Preservation

Dr. Georgeanne
Matthews,
M.ARCH '98, Ph.D. '19

Director of Urban
Practice ad interim,
Catholic University of America
Architecture

Matt Jones, MCP '15

Planning and Transportation Project Manager, National Landing Business
Improvement District
*Urban Studies &
Community Planning*

go.umd.edu/black_alumni_showcase

SCHOOL OF ARCHITECTURE,
PLANNING & PRESERVATION

Registration & Details

MAPP+D
Alumni Network
Architecture, Planning, Preservation & Real Estate Development

Maryland's Built Environment School