

CREATIVE PLACEMAKING WORKSHOP 2023

STORY + PLACE:

Amy Shimshon-Santo | Poet, Dancer, Urban Planner

WORKSHOPS

Monday (2.27), 2-6pm

Creative Placemaking Architecture
Studio and Site-based Dance Class

Tuesday (2.28), 4:30-6:30pm

Writers House

Thursday (3.2), 6:30-9 pm

Studio Art Grad Colloquium

POETRY READING

Friday (3.3), 12:30-1:30pm

Kibel Gallery, School of Architecture
Planning & Preservation

Contact us for more information:

creativeplaceminor@umd.edu

Spring 2023

February 27 - March 3

The new Creative Placemaking Minor (CRPM) is pleased to welcome its first guest artist Dr. Amy Shimshon-Santo. She is a poet, dancer, and urban planner with an interdisciplinary career in the arts, education, and community engagement. During her week-long residency, she will participate in the program's first public symposium, collaborate with faculty, and facilitate multidisciplinary workshops on STORY + PLACE for undergraduate and graduate students in Architecture, Art, Dance, and Creative Writing. Her residency will catalyze creative thinking and action that inspires artists and designers to imagine themselves as catalysts and accomplices for social and environmental justice. At the end of the week, Shimshon-Santo will hold a poetry reading in the Kibel Gallery.

Co-sponsored by:

SCHOOL OF ARCHITECTURE,
PLANNING & PRESERVATION

COLLEGE OF
ARTS & HUMANITIES

SYMPOSIUM INFO

REGISTER

